Attached is a powerpoint, with text, for a presentation at the annual meeting of the European Association of Psychology & Law in Nicosia, Cyprus. Dr. Sujeeta Bhatt and I are co-authors; I will be making the presentation. Our session is on April 11. The dates of the Conference are 9 – 13 April. (I am trying to get these things to you earlier! But I still fail to provide 30 days notice, and again, apologies.)

From their webpage, "The European Association of Psychology & Law first met in Nuremburg in 1990. The Association has three broad aims: the promotion of research, the promotion of teaching and the promotion of the interchange concerning psychology and law. The Association members are primarily academics, with a smaller percentage of law enforcement and intelligence community practitioners."
